HISTORY

Youth Action Theatre is dedicated to stimulating the love of drama and theatre through drama workshops and production experience in young people aged 16 to 25. Other than age, there is no restriction on membership. Whilst the work is thoroughly enjoyed, a strict disciplined approach is maintained and dedication required to achieve the maximum possible professionalism and the highest standard in the final production.

Founded in 1970, YAT's first production in spring 1971 was The Diary of Anne Frank. Since then, it has presented more than ninety major productions of a full range of plays including classical, modern, progressive and musical.

THEATRE RULES

For reasons of safety, glassware must NOT be taken into any part of the auditorium. Bottled water and ice-cream is allowed.

THE PLAY

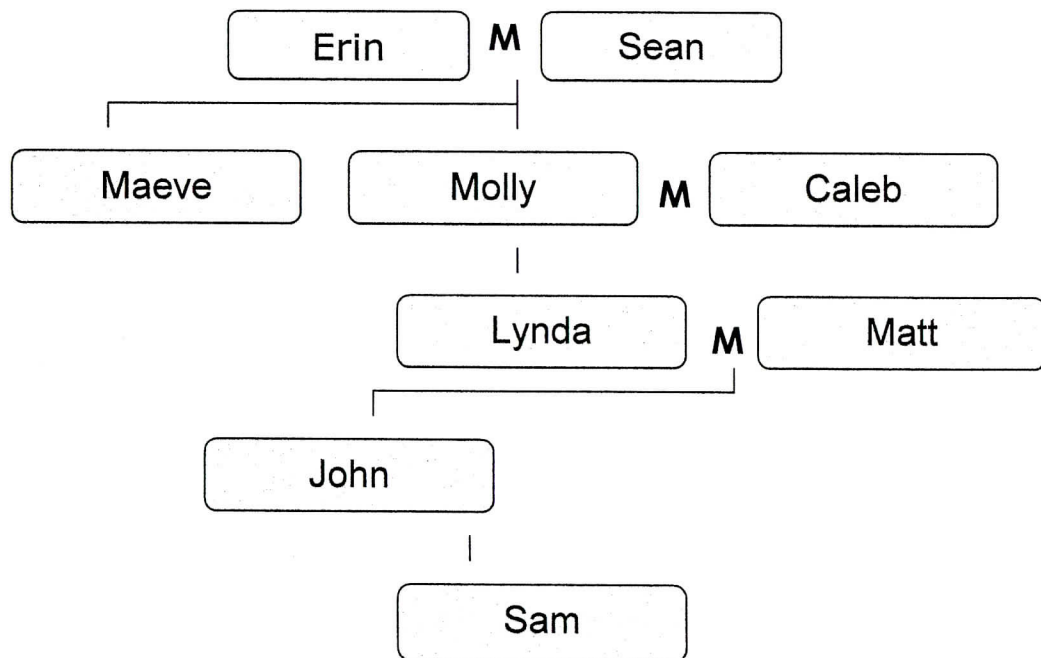

Is it possible to love someone too much?

Set in one small, back-to-back terraced house in Armley, three family dramas interlink across the decades. It's 1910 and Sean can't bear the idea of anyone touching his beautiful daughter. How far will he go to control her? Meanwhile in 1960 Lynda struggles to keep everything together whilst her son John threatens to tear it all apart. Fast forwarding to 2007, two students start a new life far away from a possessive father. Can Sam really escape her family so easily?

This compelling play unravels a story of hidden desires and dangerous obsessions.
