YAT IN THE LIBRARY

Yat are delighted to be back for a second year performing at Teddington Library in celebration of the Summer Reading Challenge!

Not only is a short runtime great for our intended audience but it's allowed us to get really creative in our rehearsal process. Most of the props and costumes on stage were made by the exceptionally talented cast! We've also been working on our improvisation, movement, and drumming skills with expert coaching and input from YAT alumni.

We have been blown away by this cast's enthusiasm, whimsy, and support for each other. We hope you enjoy their efforts as much as we've enjoyed directing it!

YAT IN REHEARSAL

What's next for YAT?

NORTHANGER ABBEY

A spirited young heroine enters the glittering world of society, where imagination and reality collide. Amid friendships, flirtations, and mysterious intrigues, she learns that life is not always like the novels she adores. Jane Austen's witty tale celebrates youthful curiosity, self-discovery, and the perils of romantic fantasy.

Directed by Sarah Dowd and Elizabeth Lattimore
