

“...All this was a long time ago, I remember,
And I would do it again, but set down
This set down
This: were we led all that way for Birth or Death ?...”

Founded in 1970, YAT's first production in Spring 1971 was The Diary of Anne Frank. Since then, it has presented nearly seventy major productions of a full range of plays including Shakespeare, modern, progressive, musical and new plays by members. Since 1981 it has taken ten productions overseas to venues in Vienna, Berlin, Kiev, Leipzig and standard in the final production.

Youth Action Theatre is dedicated to stimulating the love of drama and theatre through drama workshops and production experience in young people aged sixteen to twenty-five. Other than age, there is no restriction on membership. Although it is a completely voluntary group and the work is thoroughly enjoyed, a strict disciplined approach is maintained and dedication is required to achieve the maximum possible professionalism and the highest
